I-CAR BOARD OF DIRECTORS ELECTS SEVEN INDIVIDUALS TO FILL OPEN BOARD SEATS; THREE RETURNING FOR SECOND TERM

HOFFMAN ESTATES, IL. July 22, 2020 – I-CAR[®] (the Inter-Industry Conference on Auto Collision Repair) Board of Directors (Board) today announced the election of seven individuals to fill open board seats, including three members returning for a second, three-year term.

The Board's election process concluded on June 30; new members will assume their role immediately following the August 26 Board meeting.

In November 2019, I-CAR Regular Members approved the adoption of a more streamlined, strategically focused board structure, while retaining Inter-Industry representation and balance. The Board includes four representatives from the Collision Repair segment; three each from OEM and Insurance segments; and one each from Education; Equipment, Tool and Supply; and Related Services segments. At the Board's option, up to four hybrid seats can be added for requisite subject matter expertise.

The newly-elected members of the I-CAR BOD are:

Jennifer Boyer
Global Collision & Strategy Manager
Ford Motor Company
OEM Segment

Dean Fisher
President
CARSTAR/Driven Brands
Collision Repair Segment

Patrick Hart
College President
New York Automotive & Diesel Institute (NYADI)
Education Segment

Bill Shaw
Director Strategic Sales and Training
PPG
Equipment, Tool, and Supply Segment
